Launching conference of the ANR-DFG project

9th January 2017
9h - 19h

Introduction 9.00-9.30
Brigitte Geissel (Goethe University, Frankfurt) and Stéphanie Tawa Lama-Rewal (Centre d’Etudes de l’Inde et de l’Asie du Sud, CNRS-EHESS)

Part I. Theoretical Framework 9.00-12.30
Chair: Samuel Hayat (CNRS/CERAPS)
Brigitte Geissel and Yves Sintomer (Paris VIII University) – The claims project – Theoretical approach for developing a typology of (new) representative claims
Thomas Heberer (University of Duisburg-Essen) – Representation in an Authoritarian Context: The Case of China’s Private Entrepreneurs
Feedback: Dario Castiglione (Exeter University), Niraja Gopal Jayal (Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi), Laura Montanaro (University of Essex)

Part II. Methodological Framework and Representative Claim Analysis 14.00-16:00
Chair: Virginie Dutoya (CNRS)
Emilie Frenkiel (University Paris Est Créteil-LIPHA) and Petra Guasti (Goethe University, Frankfurt) – Preliminary Methodological Framework
Feedback: Pieter de Wilde (Norwegian University of Science and Technology, WZB), Cécile Vigour (CNRS, Centre Emile Durkheim, Sciences Po Bordeaux), Shen Yongdong (University of Oslo/ Zhejiang University Hangzhou)

Part III. Comparability of Cases 16.30-19.00
Chair: Debora Rezende (Professora at Instituto de Ciência Política da UnB)
Thomas Heberer and Stéphanie Tawa Lama-Rewal – Comparing (new) representative claims across 5 countries: Challenges and possibilities
Feedback: Catherine Achin (Paris Dauphine University, IRISSO), Markus Linden (Trier University), Srirupa Roy (Goettingen University), Leonardo Arritzer (Minas Gerais University), Marie-Hélène Vilas Boas (Nice-Sophia Antipolis University), Yu Jianxing (Zhejiang University, Hangzhou), Jean-Louis Rocca (CERLs Science Po Paris)

(New) Political Representative Claims: A Global View

Brazil China France Germany India

EHESS, 190 avenue de France, 75013 Paris (métro Quai de la Gare)
Room 638-640